

VA. EXHIBIT AT ST. LOUIS

Col. A. M. Bowman Says It Will Be Successful.

PLAYING NO FAVORITES

Not Putting Tobacco Ahead of Mineral and Agricultural Products—Manufactures and Mining Being Looked After.

There has been some misapprehension in certain quarters concerning the attitude of the press toward the St. Louis Exposition, but no one should feel that the newspaper people are averse to the movement. On the other hand, having assisted in every way possible to carry the movement through the Legislature, the representatives of the press, individually and severally, are on the side of the exposition, and are giving every possible aid to the scheme.

The Virginia commission is composed of a fine set of men, and they are doing all in their power to make the old State show up well at the great show. Colonel A. M. Bowman, of Salem, Mr. J. L. Patton, of Newport News, and Commissioner of Agriculture Kolmer constitute the Virginia commission, and they are leaving no stone unturned to make the Virginia end a success.

Colonel Bowman, in a strong letter to The Times-Dispatch, says he believes the success of the Virginia exhibit is assured and that there is no longer any doubt that every interest of the State will be fully and properly represented.

NOT LEANING ONE WAY. That one of the alleged criticisms was that too much attention was being paid to tobacco, and that other industries were being neglected. Colonel Bowman lays special stress upon the point that the agricultural and mineral products of the State are going to receive proper attention, and that every means for the consideration of these matters is being carefully looked after.

The mercantile and manufacturing interests of the State are likewise upon by Colonel Bowman, and in his communication he says that no one need fear that Virginia will not make a creditable exhibition of her products.

Captain T. C. Morton, who is the press agent for the Virginia Commission, has been located, and an ideal one, being in a central position on the exposition grounds.

The commission, through Messrs. W. W. Baker and George E. Murrell, is doing fine work nearly every day, and when the great show comes off there is every prospect that the Virginia end of it will be a success.

POLITICS IN DINWIDDIE

Many Candidates, but the Method of Nomination Not Yet Decided.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
DINWIDDIE, C. H., Va., July 4.—The fall election for county officers, and the fall of the Legislature for Dinwiddie county is growing in interest, and the committee will have to choose between a primary and convention to make the nominations. It is thought that the latter method is the wish of the majority of the people.

The following are the candidates so far announced: For the Legislature, W. M. Sterne, T. E. Clarke and Preston Boisseau; Treasurer, John W. Harris; Commonwealth's Attorney, E. E. Egan, presently judge, will oppose A. T. Powell; Sheriff, J. W. Galusha and W. H. Young, present incumbent; Commissioner of the Revenue, C. E. Abernathy in the upper district, and John Hargrove, present incumbent, in the lower district.

Mr. O. J. Boisseau has announced himself an independent candidate for the Legislature.

The demand for land has been quite active within the last few weeks, and many farms have been sold for handsome sums.

PERSONALS
Mrs. A. E. Richardson and her two sisters, Misses Alma and Laura Harris, and Miss Pauline Denney, are in the city for a week's stay in Boston and New York.

Miss Bena Johnson, of Petersburg, is visiting Mrs. O. J. Boisseau at this place.

A NEGRO'S NARROW ESCAPE

Robbed a House and Came Near Being Lynched for Another Crime.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
CHARLOTTESVILLE, Va., July 4.—Jim Stevens, a young negro, narrowly escaped lynching at the hands of about forty persons at an early hour this morning. At midnight Stevens, it is alleged, entered the residence of Mr. Joseph A. Peck, on Second Street East, and robbed the trunk of a Richmond lady, a visitor to Mr. Peck's family. He sold about his work very deliberately, lighting the gas and proceeding leisurely to abstract such articles as took his fancy.

The ladies in the room awoke and gave the alarm, and the negro, who escaped through the window, was afterwards arrested and identified.

In some way the rumor spread that the man had attempted assault and for a time lynching looked certain. The ladies, however, exterminated the man from that charge.

AMELIA AFFAIRS

A Colored Man Killed by Lightning.
Ball at Otterburn Springs.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
AMELIA, C. H., Va., July 4.—There are more saw-mills in Amelia county than ever was known before.

Telephone lines are being run out from town to several points. Richmond included, and in a few weeks Amelia will be able to phone around the globe.

Another new enterprise is the completion of a new spoke factory near the depot.

William Meade, a highly respected colored man of near this place, was struck and suddenly killed by lightning yesterday afternoon.

Allen, little daughter of Mr. and Mrs. O. S. Allen, who has been very sick with typhoid fever, is much improved, and the first ball of the season was given at Otterburn Hotel last night. A large crowd was present.

W. C. T. U. ANNUAL PICNIC

Arrangements Made for a Temperance Rally Later On.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
CHESTERFIELD, C. H., Va., July 4.—The W. C. T. U. societies of Chesterfield county held their annual picnic on the Courthouse Square to-day, and as usual several hundred people assembled to enjoy the occasion. The sunbath in the forenoon was almost blistering, but during the evening exercises a rain storm made the atmosphere delightful.

The crowd was disappointed in not having Rev. Gordon Moore, of Richmond, to make the address. In the afternoon an address by Mrs. T. A. Jones, of Norfolk, vice-president of the W. C. T. U. of Virginia, was closely followed and enjoyed by as many as could conveniently crowd into the courtroom, and spirited singing enlivened the hour.

AUTOCAR SERVICE FOR COAST OF IRELAND

(Special Cable to The Times-Dispatch,
Copyright, 1903.)

DUBLIN, July 4.—Considerable interest has been aroused in the North of Ireland by the proposed service, which, under the title of the "Coast Line Motorway," the Earl of Leitrim is organizing for the northwest of Donegal.

Lord Leitrim's arrangements are so far advanced that before long tourists and golfers, on the one hand, may find their way to new haunts of beauty, and the inhabitants of districts remote from any railway will have a new outlet for the products of their agriculture and industry.

The first service to be inaugurated will be that between Strabane Railway Station and Rosspenna, a distance of thirty-eight miles.

At Strabane the autocar service will make connections with trains from Belfast and Dublin, and with those from the Great Northern and Donegal Railways by way of Londonderry. The service will be time-tabled to connect with the services with England and Scotland.

The whole district will also benefit in another way. Lord Leitrim is employing, with steam rollers, the whole stretch of roads at his own expense.

The roads may be called mountain roads, hence the motorway, though only intended to carry sixteen passengers and a little more than half a ton of luggage, are a considerable improvement. They are, of course, very powerful. They are twenty-seven horse-power, and are now being constructed at Edinburgh.

Among those from this city who are in Boston, and attend the meeting of the National Educational Association are Superintendent W. F. Fox, of the Richmond schools; Mr. R. Edgar Shine, member of the Board of School Trustees; Principal Thomas H. Egan, of the Richmond schools; and other principals and teachers. President C. W. Elliot, of Harvard, is president of the association, which will sit from Monday until Friday. Many well-known educators will attend.

More than a hundred of the teachers of the Richmond public schools will attend the summer normals at the University of Virginia or the one to be held in Tennessee. Some of them are attending a summer course at the Cornell University, New York.

Both made fine and forcible speeches. Many local speakers followed among them Mr. Booker, Wm. Leigh, Major H. A. Edmondson, Joseph Stebbins, Jr., R. H. Beazley and W. D. Hill.

It was a day long to be remembered by the people of old Halifax.

THE DAY IN SUFFOLK

A Big Celebration at Cypress Chapel.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
SUFFOLK, VA., July 4.—The Fourth in Suffolk was very quiet. There was no particular observance save for the closing of public places and the presence of negro exorcismists.

An attempt to close the stores in some line of trade failed, because of its being Saturday, which is the biggest day of the week with Suffolk merchants.

The biggest Independence Day celebration came off at Cypress Chapel, where there were several hundred of negroes. Among those who made addresses were Colonel E. E. Holland, Bradford Kilby and Robert W. Withers. A special train was run there from Suffolk.

Excitement in Radford

Angry and Excited Crowd Came Near Doing Violence to a Negro.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
EAST RADFORD, VA., July 4.—Radford was full of excitement and a good order prevailed until late in the evening at the Fair Grounds. The races were well attended and a large crowd of the white and colored people of the last race negro struck Joseph Brown (last) over the head and face with a whip. Brown is small and the crowd pressed in when some thoughtless persons cried lynch him. Joseph R. Jordan, ex-United States marshal, was the first to strike him, and upon Sergeant McNeill's arrival the negro was hustled off to the jail, the sergeant buying.

The crowd was very angry and violence was narrowly averted.

Lynchburg Patriotic.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
LYNCHBURG, Va., July 4.—The Fourth of July was more generally observed in Lynchburg to-day than ever before. Among the principal events was a show at the home of the Lynchburg Gun Club, an interesting horse show given at the beautiful suburban home of Mr. John D. Langley, at Park View, near Mount Park, and a number of picnics.

An "Independence tea" was given this evening by Mr. and Mrs. George D. Witt at Cliffon Park, near the city.

NEWPORT NEWS, July 4.—The Fourth of July was celebrated to-day to a greater extent than heretofore. The day started in to break all heat records for the summer, but fortunately a typical April shower and thunder storm cooled the atmosphere from about noon to 4 p. m. The thermometer registered 57 degrees to-day before noon. The highest temperature of the summer was so recorded yesterday afternoon.

The Federal buildings were closed, the city hall offices transacted no business, the shipyard closed down yesterday at noon for the holiday, the Chesapeake and Ohio gave a number of its employees half day, and the stores closed at noon and the day was given up to pleasure.

This morning at Casino Park the Newport News baseball club snatched a victory from the Bureau Athletic Club, which holds the championship of Washington, the score being 6 to 5.

FIVE EVENTS SPOILED.
The rain interfered with the five events which had been arranged at the Hampton Roads Driving Association. The best programme ever arranged in this section of the State was announced and about two score horses were on hand to enter at Greenlawn race course and with the man-of-war-mans events in Hampton Roads, as well as with the afternoon yacht races.

There was a large exodus to the summer resorts in the morning, but the rain drove a number of people back home in the afternoon. There was a display at Buckner Beach to-night. At day to-day the Dutch battleship De Ruyter fired the United States Presidential salute of twenty-one guns. The warships at Old Point sent salutes at noon.

At St. Vincent's Catholic Church this morning there was a special Catholic and patriotic mass, followed by flag-raising at the new St. Vincent's Male Academy. A large gathering of friends and relatives were present at the church. Father Wilson's large congregation, including the Knights of Columbus and the Ancient Order of Hibernians, marched to the institution, led by a large band.

Northern and Western Settlers Join
With Native People in Celebration.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
SOUTH BOSTON, VA., July 4.—The glorious Fourth was celebrated in the old-time style. The many northern and western people who have come to the true Virginia settlement, celebrated the Fourth at John Craman's farm, who is a farmer from Nebraska, near Wolf Trap. A large gathering was present, both young and old, and a sumptuous dinner for several days was served.

For several days it had been heralded that Mr. M. J. Richards, land and industrial agent of the Southern Railway, would deliver an address on the development of the South, and the Scotch, also, Mr. Frank O. Moore, of the Chesapeake Daily News, who is making a tour of Virginia, with the view of informing its readers as to the many advantages offered to the farmers of the Northwest.

Both made fine and forcible speeches. Many local speakers followed among them Mr. Booker, Wm. Leigh, Major H. A. Edmondson, Joseph Stebbins, Jr., R. H. Beazley and W. D. Hill.

RELIC WRAPPED IN COSTLY PAPER

(Special Cable to The Times-Dispatch,
Copyright, 1903.)

PARIS, July 4.—Cardinal Richard, Archbishop of Paris, has received a record-breaking envelope. Fragments from the true cross, or rather the alleged true cross, are common enough. So are thorns from the Saviour's crown. There are scattered over the Christian world more fragments of the cross than a goodly sized forest could supply, and there are more thorns treasured from the crown than could grow upon one thousand Hawthorn bushes.

The relic, therefore, nothing wonderful in the fact that a lady has bequeathed to the Cardinal Archbishop a fragment from the true cross and a thorn from the Saviour's crown.

The interesting part of the legacy is that she wrapped these relics in twenty-four thousand franc notes and directed that these should be used for the poor of the diocese.

IN MEMORIAM.
ON the death of MARY ELLEN CRAVER, a faithful wife and devoted mother, who died at her home here Thursday evening, we receive her heavenly reward.

Once again is forced upon us, who knew and loved her, the old truth, that the grim tyrant death leaves a shining mark. A devout and consistent Christian, she was esteemed by every one who knew her. When her funeral dirge was being sung on earth the angels of God were ringing the everlasting bells of eternity, proclaiming the glad tidings of the birth of a new born soul into the kingdom of Heaven and the redemption of a death-bed name inscribed on the pages of the book of eternal life.

Her body rests in that beautiful "city of our dead," but we feel that are this the "early gates" have swung open and that her soul has witherward winged its flight; we feel that are this she has walked the "golden streets" and "the 'Isaiah seats' of the New Jerusalem.

Of her it may be truthfully said, "She was faithful unto death."

A BIG MORTGAGE.
The $4,000 mortgage recently given by the Southern Railway Company to the Central Trust Company, of New York, for rolling stock is being recorded in the office of the Wake County Register of Deeds. Similar records are to be made in ten States. The new equipment consists of 150 locomotives and 700 freight cars, delivery to be made at intervals during the next year.

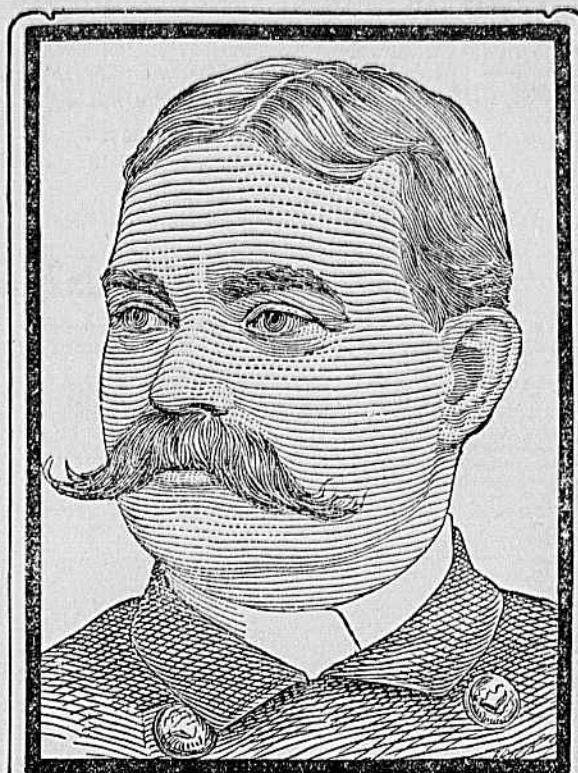

Many people, especially Baptists, throughout the State, will learn with deep sorrow of the critical illness of the venerable Dr. Thomas E. Skinner, of the general Trust Company, of New York, and most honored Baptist ministers of the State. He has been at Jackson Springs for several weeks, having left his home here for the summer, and has been seized with pneumonia in both lungs. He also has a predisposition to heart failure. Physicians say he has only a fighting chance for life.

ru-na—Other Prominent Men Testify.

LUCIEN YOUNG.

LUCIEN YOUNG, Commander of the U. S. Navy gunboat "Herald," was specially mentioned by Admiral Sampson for his gallantry. He writes from Washington, D. C.:

"The curative qualities of Peru-na as a cure for catarrh have been fully established by the use of the same most successfully by many of my acquaintances, and I can recommend anyone so afflicted to try it."—Lucien Young.

Commodore Somerville, Nicholson, of the United States navy, in a letter from 1337 R Street, Northwest, Washington, D. C., says:

"Your Peru-na has been and is now used by so many of my friends and acquaintances as a sure cure for catarrh that I am convinced of its curative qualities, and I unhesitatingly recommend it to all persons suffering from that complaint."—S. Nicholson.

The highest men in our nation have used Peru-na, a strong endorsement. Men of all classes and stations are equally recommended.

Catarrhal Nervousness.
Mr. Charles Brown, Rogersville, Tenn., writes:

"I feel it my duty to write you a few words in praise of your Peru-na. I have tried many different remedies, but have found that Peru-na is the greatest tonic on earth, and a perfect system builder."

He then advised me to take Peru-na for indigestion, and it cured me in a short time. I was very weak and nervous; could not sleep but little at night."

The above testimonials are only specimens of the many thousand letters received touching the merits of Peru-na as a catarrhal tonic. No more useful remedy to tone up the system has ever been devised by the medical profession.
